

CEL
6240/P
1797
or 1800

Under Sanction of Government.

THE CELEBRATED

ARCANUM TINCTURE

FOR THE

STONE AND GRAVEL.

NOW in the highest esteem, and universally approved of, by the most eminent physicians, for its superiority over every other medicine that has ever yet been offered to the public for the above complaints. In cases of the Stone, this inestimable preparation exceeds all bounds of expectation, as it actually dissolves the Stone either in the bladder or kidneys, and reduces it to the minuteness of the finest sand. It is but candid to remark, that this dissolution is attended with much pain, a natural consequence, that a wound must be probed before it can be healed. But who is the person, labouring under the excruciating torture of the above disease, that would not endure a small portion of momentary anguish, rather than submit to the dreadful alternative of the knife; an operation which so frequently proves fatal to the patient.

Prepared by the Proprietor, No. 4, Warwick-row, Blackfriars-Road, where it is sold, wholesale and retail, in Bottles 10s. 6d. and 5s. 3d. each, duty included, with proper instructions how to take the medicine. Sold also retail at Green's Patent Medicine Warehouse, No. 132, Oxford-street, near Holles-street, and at no other place in London.—Also at Mr. Rawson's Circulating Library, Hull, Yorkshire.—Country-Venders may be supplied with any quantity at the shortest notice, by applying to the Proprietor.—A reasonable discount is allowed to all persons who take a quantity for exportation.

Under the Sanction of Government.

DORENSTORFF'S

IMPERIAL OPODELDOC,

The most salutary and infallible Embrocation that has ever been offered to the Public for the Rheumatism, Pains in the Joints, Sprains, Bruises, and contracted Sinews.

THIS incomparable medicine has been found to remove the most excruciating pains during its application, and is rarely required to be used more than twice. Persons of weak and debilitated nerves, by applying a small quantity to the chest the first thing in the morning, will find their spirits re-animated: also those who are afflicted with a shortness of breath, by frequently bathing the chest and applying new flannel, will find their lungs restored to a free state of respiration. In short, its unparalleled efficacy has been so wonderfully experienced, that farther encomiums would be superfluous.

Prepared by the Proprietor, and sold, wholesale and retail, No. 4, Warwick-row, Blackfriars-road, and retailed by the following agents:—The British Patent Medicine Warehouse, No. 13, Cornhill; at Green's, No. 132, Oxford-street, near Holles-street; at Turtle's, No. 127, opposite Exeter Change, Strand; at Shaw's, No. 74, High-street, Borough; and at Mr. Rawson's Circulating Library, Hull, Yorkshire; in Bottles, 3s. 6d. each, duty included.

Under the Sanction of Government.

GOLDSMITH'S CELEBRATED BALSAM

For Coughs, Hoarseness, Astmatic Complaints, and all Disorders of the Breast and Lungs, however contumacious in their Nature.

IT is by no means the intention of the Proprietor to trouble the public with a prolix recital of cures, it being sufficiently flattering to her that its successful operations has generally recommended it to the world, from the candid declarations of many persons who have happily experienced its salutary effects; a few of which, being extraordinary cases, have authorized the Proprietor to publish their names for the benefit of the suffering part of the community, and who will cheerfully satisfy any enquirer: Mrs. Brooks, No. 103, corner of Fountain-court, Strand; Miss Simms, of Covent Garden Theatre; Mr. John Green, George-Inn, Borough; William Brown, Coachman to one of the Maidstone Stages; Mr. Hill, No. 3, Rood-lane; Mrs. Hamilton, No. 3, Dean's Place, Westminster-road; Mrs. Smith, a Dresser at Drury-Lane Theatre.

To captains of ships and all sea-faring people, this inestimable medicine is particularly recommended as truly calculated for persons of nautical occupations, and such as are in the habit of going long voyages; as it fortifies the lungs from the dire effects and dangerous consequences which foggy weather at sea is so frequently productive of. Any poor seaman, afflicted with the above complaints, properly recommended, by applying to the Proprietor, will receive gratis a sufficient quantity to perform the cure.

Prepared and sold by the Proprietor, wholesale and retail, No. 4, Warwick-row, Blackfriars-road; at E. Newbery's, corner of St. Paul's Church-Yard; at the British Patent Medicine Warehouse, No. 13, Cornhill; at Turtle's, No. 127, opposite Exeter-Change, Strand; at Green's, No. 132, Oxford-street, near Holles-street; at Shaw's, No. 72, High-street, Borough; and at Mr. Rawson's Circulating Library, Hull, Yorkshire; in Packets, 3s. 6d. and 1. 9d. each, duty included.

RYLAND AND BROOKS,

TRUSS - MAKERS

TO

THE CHARTER - HOUSE,

SUCCESSORS TO THE LATE

E. RYLAND,

OF

GLOUCESTER-STREET, QUEEN-SQUARE,

BEG leave to acquaint professional Gentlemen and the Public, that they continue to make their much-improved Trusses for Ruptures of every species, so highly esteemed by the most eminent surgeons for the superior advantages they possess over every other kind, particularly for seafaring men; not only in perfecting the cure, but are worn with more ease and safety, being made wholly without steel, an article which has so frequently been productive of the most destructive consequences to the patient.—The singular utility of their Trusses have been happily experienced upwards of Twenty Years at the Charter-House, and several other charitable institutions.—Bag and hunting Trusses, strait Stockings, Ankle and Knee Pieces, and Bandages of every description.—A reasonable discount allowed to those who take a quantity for exportation.—No. 103, the corner of Fountain-court, Strand.